

SUBJECT: Equal Employment Opportunity and Non-Discrimination Program for Individuals with Disabilities & Protected Veterans - Statement of Policy

APPLIES TO: All Employees and Applicants for Employment

DATE: September 1, 2025

Traverse Therapeutics, Inc. (hereinafter “Company”) has an enduring commitment to the concept and practice of equal employment opportunity as well as to affirming the value of inclusivity and promoting a workplace free from unlawful discrimination.

It is the policy of Traverse Therapeutics, Inc. not to discriminate or allow the harassment of employees or applicants on the basis of physical or mental disability, protected veteran status or any other characteristic protected by law with regard to any employment practices, including but not limited to, recruitment, hiring, promotion, transfer, demotion, layoff or recall from layoff, termination, wage and benefit administration, and selection for training or other employment opportunities, provided the individual is qualified, with or without reasonable accommodation, to perform the essential functions of the job. This policy applies to all jobs at the Company. The Company will continue to ensure individuals are employed, and employees are treated during employment, without regard to their physical or mental disability, protected veteran status or any other characteristic protected by law in all employment practices as follows.

Employment decisions at the Company are based on legitimate job-related criteria. All personnel actions or programs that affect qualified individuals, such as employment, promotion, demotion, transfer, recruitment, advertising, termination, rate of pay or other forms of compensation, and selection for training, are made without discrimination because of any basis protected by law. Employees may choose to voluntarily disclose their disability or protected veteran status at any time by changing their Self-Identification of Disability status in Workday. Such information will be maintained in a confidential manner and will not be used against an individual when making any employment decisions. Employees and applicants with disabilities or disabled veterans are encouraged to inform People Success if they need a reasonable accommodation to perform a job for which they are otherwise qualified. The Company makes, and will continue to make, reasonable accommodation to the known physical or mental limitations of an otherwise qualified applicant or employee to promote the employment of qualified individuals with disabilities and disabled veterans, unless such accommodation would impose an undue hardship on the operations of the Company.

Traverse Therapeutics, Inc. and its President and Chief Executive Officer are fully committed to the principles of equal employment opportunity and non-discrimination and support the successful implementation of the Company's Non-Discrimination Programs. Angela Giannantonio, Chief People Officer, Non-Discrimination Officer for the Company, has been appointed with responsibility for implementation of the Company's non-discrimination activities. The Non-Discrimination Officer has the full support of top management to fully implement this Program. All managers and supervisors will take an active part in the Company's Non-Discrimination Program to ensure all qualified employees and prospective employees are treated in a non-discriminatory manner with respect to all employment decisions. Furthermore, Traverse Therapeutics, Inc. will solicit the cooperation and support of all employees for the Company's Equal Employment Opportunity and Non-Discrimination Statement of Policy.

The Company's Non-Discrimination Program includes an audit and reporting system, which, among other things, uses metrics and other information to measure the effectiveness of the Program. The Non-Discrimination Officer has been assigned responsibility for periodically reviewing progress with compliance and implementation of the Company's Non-Discrimination Policy. In accordance with public law, the
